1) Further unilateral Swedish liberalizing measures apply as from 1 January 1985 for a number of products covered by these items. Pending forthcoming bilateral trade consultations in 1985, appropriate quota headings and corresponding quotas will be determined in due course. The products thus liberalized are now liable to surveillance licensing (AL) only.

2) Plastic and rubber boots were liberalized as from 1 January 1985. As for other footwear that remain subject to import licensing, the Swedish Government anticipates that agreement will be reached on a bilateral quota.

3) Restrictions earlier applied on zinc oxide and household chinaware were abolished as from 1 January 1985; now, only surveillance licensing (AL) applies for these goods.

TURKEY

With reference to airgram GATT/AIR/2084 of 23 November 1984, and on the instructions of my Government, I have the honour to inform you that Turkey does not apply any discriminatory quantitative restrictions on imports from Romania.
