PRESIDENT CLARK RULES SPEECHES MUST BE LIMITED TO CONFERENCE SUBJECT MATTER: INDONESIAN REPUBLIC AGREES TO WITHDRAW PARTS OF SPEECH DELIVERED THIS MORNING: GENERAL DEBATE CONTINUES

At the beginning of the Sixth Plenary Meeting this afternoon, President Sergio I. Clark (Cuba) ruled on the point of order raised earlier by the Representative of the Netherlands in connection with this morning's speech by the Representative of Indonesia. The President ruled that speeches should not contain attacks on other nations nor purely political material, but should be limited to the subject matter of the Conference. At the President's invitation, the Representative of Indonesia agreed to the deletion of certain parts of his speech, while the Representative of the Netherlands declared himself satisfied with the President's ruling.

The General Debate was then resumed with addresses delivered by the Representative of Iraq (who also spoke for Transjordan), Lebanon, France, Turkey, New Zealand and Peru.

The next Plenary Meeting will take place at 4:00 P.M. tomorrow, Saturday, 29 November 1947.
