RESTRICTED

L/1729/Corr.1
22 May 1962

Limited Distribution

GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

REVIEW OF THE OPERATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE XVI

Amount, Level and Type of Production and/or Export Subsidies and Other Forms of Governmental Financial Support Affecting Production and/or Export with Respect to Selected Primary Products

Summary Schedules

Corrigendum

United States

On page 4/5, delete third entry from the top in column 4 "on 4,777 thousand metric tons" and insert the following:

"74.4 (on 3,539 thousand metric tons)".

Norway

On page 11, add the following in column 5 under "(b) approximately 8.40":

"Note: Under the new Agricultural Agreement the basic bonus is increased from $8.40 to $12.60 per metric ton for the period from 1 July 1961 to 30 June 1962 and from $12.60 to $15.40 per metric ton from the period from 1 July 1962 to 30 June 1963."

Norway

Starting from B on page 21, entries in different columns on page 21 and 22 should read as:

(1) Type of subsidy as notified	(2) Item	(3) Year	(4) Amount of subsidy as notified (million US$)	(5) Unit amount of subsidy as notified (unless otherwise specified) (US$ per metric ton or unit indicated)
F. Arrangements for price support under the Agricultural Agreement between the Government and the Farmers' Unions:
1. Agreement (1 July 1958-30 June 1961); in addition to the subsidy arrangements mentioned in A above, the Agreement contains provisions for assistance financed from other sources than the Treasury, i.e., from levies on concentrated animal feed charged on inland sales of domestic and imported feeding stuffs.
a. Minimum price guarantee for farmers.	Milk products	1958 (1 July)-1961 (30 June)	Limited to 5.6/year
b. General support.	Milk and dairy products	1958-61	Limited to 0.7/year
Note: The amounts mentioned against (a) and (b) above are the portions of the concentrated feed levies, which under the Agricultural Agreement, are available for marketing measures for milk and milk products. From these amounts, the following export subsidies were allocated for butter and cheese during the period stated.			This amount is allocated for general supporting purposes for milk, meat, bacon, eggs and poultry.	. .
c. Export subsidies	Butter	1 July 1959-30 June 1960	1.7 Note: The compensation is kept sufficiently high to secure a price of $1,050.00 per ton net f.o.b. price calculation.	172.20
	Cheese	1 July 1959-30 June 1960	1.6 Note: Under the new Agricultural Agreement for the period from 1 July 1961 to 30 June 1963, the subsidy is to be computed at the amount necessary in order to maintain a net f.o.b. price of $630.00 per metric ton for cheese (gouda) of high fat content and proportionate subsidies for other varieties of cheese.	163.80
d. Freight allowance	Milk (delivered to dairies)	1958-61	1.4/year	approx. 1.26

(1) Type of subsidy as notified	(2) Item	(3) Year	(4) Amount of subsidy as notified (million US$)	(5) Unit amount of subsidy as notified (unless otherwise specified) (US$ per metric ton or unit indicated)
2. Agreement (1 July 1961-30 June 1963). Under the new Agricultural Agreement, $7.0 million from the concentrated feed levies are to be made available annually for marketing measures for milk and milk products, against $5.6 million under the previous agreement (see B, 1, a, above). The subsidy to be distributed over miscellaneous products is abolished (see E, 1, b, above). The freight allowance system for milk is maintained at the necessary amount, against $1.4 million under the previous agreement (see B, 1, d, above). For price reductions on dried and condensed milk to be used in the manufacture of industrial goods with free-trade area status within EFTA, $0.6 million are to be made available annually.

Norway

On page 25, entries in different columns starting from 1. (a) should read as:

(a) Market - regulating measures.	Meat and pork	1958-61	1.3/year	. .
(b) General support Note: The amounts mentioned against (a) and (b) above are those which may, under the Agricultural Agreement be set aside from the concentrated feed levies and made available for stabilization measures in the meat market. No export subsidies were granted during the period 1 July 1958 to 30 June 1960.	Meat and pork	1958-61	0.7/year (allocated for general supporting purposes for milk, meat, bacon, eggs, and poultry)	. .
(c) Freight allowance	Slaughtered animals	1958-61	1.4/year	. .
(d) Export subsidy	Meat and pork	1958 (1 July)-1960 (30 June)	None	None
		1960 (1 July)-1961 (30 June)	. .	. .

(1) Type of subsidy as notified	(2) Item	(3) Year	(4) Amount of subsidy as notified (million US$)	(5) Unit amount of subsidy as notified (unless otherwise specified) (US$ per metric ton or unit indicated)
2. Agreement (1 July 1961 - 30 June 1963). Under the new Agricultural Agreement, $0.7 million may be granted annually for meat and pork marketing measures, (see 1, a, above). The subsidies for distribution among various products are abolished (see 1, b, above). The freight allowance system for slaughtered animals is maintained at the amount necessary under the current regulations, against $1.4 million annually under the previous agreement (see 1, c, above).
Norway
On page 30, entries in different columns starting from 1. (a) should read as:
(a) Market - regulating measures	Eggs and poultry	1958-61	0.6/year	. .
(b) General support. Note: According to the Agricultural Agreement, the amounts mentioned against (a) and (b) above are from the concentrated feed levies which may be made available for market regulating measures for eggs and poultry. The following export subsidies were granted from this source:	Eggs, poultry, milk, meat and bacon	1958-61	0.7/year (allocated for general supporting purposes for milk, meat, bacon, eggs and poultry)	. .
(c) Export subsidies; the subsidies represent the difference between domestic prices and those achieved in the foreign market.	Eggs	1959 (1 July)-1960 (30 June)	0.3	average 214.20
2. Agreement (1 July 1961 - 30 June 1963). According to the new Agricultural Agreement, $0.4 million may be granted annually for marketing measures for eggs and poultry, as against $0.6 million annually under the previous agreement (see 1, a, above). The subsidies for distribution among the various products are abolished (see 1, b, above).				