ITALIAN SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR CERTAIN LIBYAN PRODUCTS

Twelfth Annual Report
1964
Submitted by the Government of Libya

By Decision dated 9 October 1952 the CONTRACTING PARTIES to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade granted a waiver to Italy from the provisions of Article I paragraph 1 of the General Agreement so as to authorize that country to apply special customs treatment on certain products originating in and imported from Libya. By Decision of 25 November 1955 this waiver was extended until 31 December 1958 by Decision of 28 November 1958 until 31 December 1961 and by Decision of 16 November 1961 until 31 December 1964.

This Decision also provides that the Libyan Government should submit a report every year on the economic progress of Libya and the development of its external trade within the framework of the special treatment.

In compliance with this obligation, an account of the trade in question is given below and the following tables are attached showing the quantities and value of the commodities exported from Libya in 1961, 1962 and 1963:

1. Commodities subject to special treatment according to the waiver:

- Table A to all destinations
- B to Italy
- C to other destinations

2. Commodities subject to duty when imported into Libya:

- Table A to all destinations
- B to Italy
- C to other destinations

3. Commodities which enter Italy duty free irrespective of origin

Table A to all destinations

B to Italy

C to other destinations

The total value of domestic exports in 1963 amounted to £L.133,535,482 as compared with £L.49,015,961 in 1962 and £L.6,512,522 in 1961.

The large increase in the volume of exports in 1963 is due to the full exploitation of the oilfields; shipment of crude petroleum during this year amounted to 167,015,338 barrels of a value of £L.131,822,819.

As regards other commodities, there were no exports of cattle, sheep or goats; this was due to the adverse climatic conditions during the year, also the export of camels was negligible.

Exports of olive oil during the year were not of any great importance owing to the droughts and the unexpectedly bad seasonal harvest.

PRINCIPAL DOMESTIC EXPORTS

| SITC Code | Commodity | Value in £L.1,000 to all countries | to Italy | Exports to Italy as % of total exports |
|--------------|-------------------------------|--|-------------|---|
| 331 010 | Crude petroleum | 131,823 | 18,816 | 14.3 |
| 221 110 | Groundnuts (peanuts) | 617 | 202 | 30.6 |
| 211 000 | Hides and skins | 257 | 158 | 61.5 |
| 221 700 | Castor oil | 236 | 186 | 79 |
| 262 000 | Wool and other animal hair | 123 | 42 | 34.5 |

Exports to Italy increased from £L.9,169,000 in 1962 to £L.19,404,000 in 1963. This represents 14.5 per cent of the total volume of export as compared with 18.7 per cent in 1962.

In the eleventh report reference was made to the expansion of industries such as the erection of an oil refinery at Mersa Brega Oil Terminal, which is now in operation and producing all types of fuels. The gypsum calcinating plant is now also in production and many other infant industries are now able to stand on their feet and to compete in such fields as chemicals, detergents, food preserves, fruits and vegetables, soap and matches.

The Government is exerting every effort and giving special attention to the improvement of agriculture including the development of marketing, water preservation, husbandry, planting, the prevention of plant disease, the supply of agricultural equipment and loans for farmers.

Finally it should be pointed out that, although the Government is in possession of large resources for the formulation of this vast programme for the development of the national economy, quick results cannot be expected.

The waiver permitting the entry into Italy on a duty-free basis of olive oil and other commodities continues, therefore, to be a paramount concession in assisting agriculture in Libya.
