GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Notification by Switzerland

Addendum

The following communication, dated 2 July 1982, has been received from the Swiss delegation and is circulated for the information of contracting parties.

The Swiss Federal Council has decided to make additions to the Swiss scheme of tariff preferences. The new measures entered into force on 1 July 1982.

By virtue of that decision, the 31 least developed countries will be accorded duty-free treatment on exports of industrial products for which other developing countries are granted only limited preferences. The products are: textiles, clothing, footwear, umbrellas, unwrought aluminium and primary cells and batteries (chapters 50-63, heading Nos. 6402, 6601, 7601 and 8503). This means that now all the industrial products of chapters 25-99 will be free of customs taxation, with the sole exception of goods subject to fiscal duties (mineral fuels: heading Nos. 2707, 2709-11, ex 2901, ex 2904, 3707; films: ex 3814, ex 3818, ex 3819; motor vehicles, engines and other components: 8702, 8704-8706, ex 8406). Moreover, duty-free treatment is accorded on 48 agricultural products, of which 24 have not been part of the Swiss scheme of preferences. Among these agricultural products, the most important economically for the least developed countries are groundnuts, powdered cocoa and pineapples.

The Federal Council has also decided to increase the margin of preference on a small number of products from certain countries. For articles of semi-processed copper from Yugoslavia (heading Nos. 7403-7405 and 7407), the margin is increased from 30 to 75 per cent. For products of semi-processed aluminium originating in Yugoslavia, Romania and Turkey (heading Nos. 7602 and 7603), the preference margin goes from 50 to 75 per cent. For umbrellas and primary electric cells and batteries from Hong Kong, the preference margin rises from 30 to 50 per cent in two stages. China too is accorded preferences for certain textiles. They are: silk, wool, and raw cotton (heading Nos. 5001.01, 5002.10, 5301.10 and 5501.10), typically Chinese silk articles (ex 5009.10, ex 5009.20), rugs and tapestries (5801, 5802 and 5803) and articles of jute and coconut fibres (5703.16, 5706, 5710, 5904.52, ex 5905.50, ex 6203.52). For these products, China will henceforth be treated in the same way as other countries beneficiaries of preferences.

The List of agricultural products entering into the Swiss scheme of preferences will be extended by the addition of capers, lentils, tropical fruit salad and date syrup (heading Nos. ex 0703.01, ex 2001.14, ex 0705.14, ex 2006.24, ex 2007.42 and ex 2007.52).
