GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Notification by the United States

Addendum

The following communication dated 10 May 1979 has been received from the delegation of the United States.

Pursuant to the notification procedure provided under paragraph (c) of the Decision of the CONTRACTING PARTIES of 25 January 1971, concerning the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP), I am sending for the information of contracting parties a copy of Executive Order 12124 of 28 February 1979, published in the Federal Register, Vol. 44, No. 43 of 2 March 1979, containing modifications.

For the purposes of GSP, some United States tariff items (TSUS) have been sub-divided. This provision appears in Annex I of the Executive Order.

The Executive Order implements the results of the 1979 annual review of petitions seeking changes in the list of eligible GSP products. This review resulted in the addition of twenty-one TSUS items to the GSP list and the deletion of four TSUS items from the list (see below). Imports of twenty-one added items amounted to some $200 million in 1978, about one half of which came from beneficiary developing countries. Imports of four deleted items amounted to about $327 million, about $126 million of which came from beneficiary developing countries.

The deletion will enter into force on 1 March 1980.

The Executive Order also implements changes in the GSP scheme required by the competitive need limitation provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 (Section 504(c)). These provisions (1) require the President to revoke within sixty days of the beginning of the calendar year the GSP eligibility of any country for a specific product if that country's exports of that product exceed certain ceilings during the preceding calendar year and (2) give the President discretionary authority to grant GSP eligibility for a product when a country's exports of that product fall below the ceiling.

The 1979 GSP product review resulted in the following changes in the United States GSP list. Annex II(a) to Executive Order 12124 indicates that some 119 products have been transferred from Annex II to Annex III. This means that certain beneficiary countries or territories, specified in Annex IV, are not eligible for GSP duty-free treatment for these items under the mandatory provisions regarding competitive need limitation, during the period 1 March 1979 to the end of February 1980. On the other hand, under the discretionary authority of the Trade Act, 122 products (122 product/country groups) which had been ineligible for GSP for certain beneficiary countries or territories under competitive need during the year ending 28 February 1979 were redesignated as eligible for GSP for these countries and territories. Trade in these items during calendar year 1978 totalled $135 million.

As a result of the modifications to the GSP list as referred to above, Annex III listing GSP items subject to competitive need limitation now includes 337 TSUS items. Of these 337 products, 327 are excluded from GSP duty-free treatment for only one country each, while ten products are excluded for more than one supplier. Counting each country excluded from GSP on each particular product as one product/country group, there are a total of 364 product/country groups excluded (i.e. 327 products with only one country excluded, and the remaining ten products with more than one country excluded). Imports of these products from excluded countries were $3.9 billion during calendar year 1978. In comparison, the 1978 product review resulted in 320 products being excluded under competitive need for one or more countries for a total of 342 product/country groups with a 1977 calendar year trade of $3 billion.

<sup>10</sup>f which 102 products have been transferred from Annex III to Annex II (see Annex II(b)). Twenty other products remain in Annex III.

Listed below are statistics for 1976, 1977 and 1978 calendar years outlining the overall magnitude of United States GSP trade.

United States Imports of GSP Eligible Products

(Unit: US$ billion) 1976 1977 1978 124.0 172.0 Total imports from world 151.7 41.5 24% Total imports of some 2,800 26.5 21% 31.1 21% GSP eligible items: 77% From non-GSP eligible 19.9 (75% 23.4 75% 31.7 countries 100% From GSP eligible 6.5 (25% 7.7 25% 9.7 23% countries: 54% Entering duty-free -3.2 (4:9% 3.9 51% 5.2 GSP treatment accorded 100% 46% Dutiable-for competitive 3.4 need, value added or other reasons

Notes: Imports entering duty free having been accorded GSP treatment increased from US$3.9 billion in 1977 to US$5.2 billion in 1978. The 33.3 per cent growth of GSP accorded imports far exceeds 13.4 per cent growth in the total imports of the United States between 1977 and 1978.

Improved GSP utilization by GSP-eligible countries is indicated by an increase in the ratio of imports accorded GSP treatment to imports not accorded GSP treatment.
