The text of footnote 3 should read as follows:

<sup>3/</sup> If the modification implies an extension of an initial negotiating right to a further country or countries or is a change in the description of the product rather than an increase or a decrease in the bound rate of duty, or if the modification is a conversion of the type of duty that is considered to constitute neither an increase nor a decrease in the margin of protection or is of any other character not falling under the headings 'B' or 'C', such modifications should be reported under a separate, appropriate heading.
