ACP-EEC CONVENTION OF LOME

Communication by the European Communities

The following communication, dated 17 November 1978, has been received from the Permanent Delegation of the Commission of the European Communities.

I have the honour to forward to you herewith, for the information of the CONTRACTING PARTIES, a communication from the European Communities concerning the accession of the Republic of Djibouti and the Solomon Islands to the ACP/EEC Convention of Lomé.

ANNEX

Accession of the Republic of Djibouti and the Solomon Islands to the ACP/EEC Convention of Lomé

In pursuance of Article 89 of the ACP/EEC Convention of Lomé:

- The Republic of Djibouti acceded to this Convention on 2 February 1978;
- The Solomon Islands acceded to this Convention on 27 September 1978.

As from these dates, therefore, any reference to the "ACP States" in the acts of the institutions of the Community likewise covers these two countries.
