Replace the text by the following:

(d) Time-limits for submitting licence applications are generally set only in those cases where applications are to be examined at the same time (e.g. for the allocation of quota between applicants). In such cases a period not exceeding one month for the submission of application is set in accordance with Community rules.

Replace the text by the following:

(e) Five working days is the time-limit set by Community rules for licences to be issued in respect of certain textile products from supplying countries with which the Community has negotiated bilateral agreements and in respect of goods subject to Community surveillance licensing. In the case of unilaterally established restrictions, the maximum time allowed by Community rules is three weeks where applications are examined as and when received, or two months from the date set for receipt of applications where the applications are to be examined at the same time.
