The following communication, dated 6 June 1984, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Switzerland.

The Federal Council has decided to charge, as from 1 May 1984, an additional customs duty of Sw. Quantities in excess of that level may be imported, as before, without restriction, subject to payment of the additional duty. The new measure concerns the following vegetables: peas, beans, carrots, spinach, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, cauliflower, snow peas, salsify, kohlrabi, kale, lettuce, leeks, rhubarb, celery, onions and marrows.
