GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Notification by the United States

Addendum

For the information of contracting parties, the delegation of the United States has provided the following information regarding changes made in the United States GSP scheme with effect from 1 July 1985.

SUMMARY OF GSP CHANGES

1. Changes Resulting from the 1984 GSP Product Review

The addition of new products to the GSP list.--As a result of the annual product review, 4 new items are being designated for GSP duty-free treatment as of July 1, 1985. These items represent $41 million in newly-eligible trade, compared to the $7 million added in last year's review. (See Annex I and Table 1).

The removal of items from the GSP.--One article is being removed from the GSP in response to a petition filed by a U.S. producer. There were no imports of this product in 1984 due to U.S. patent rights which will expire this year. Following expiration of the patent, imports of this product are expected to be substantial. (See Annex II and Table 2).

The removal, or "graduation," of a country from eligibility with respect to individual products.--Four countries, Taiwan, Korea, Mexico and Israel, will be graduated from GSP eligibility on certain products in response to petitions filed by U.S. producers. The graduation actions affect 12 of 22 requests for limitation of GSP benefits under review, with excluded trade valued at $163 million in 1984, compared to the $183 million in 1983 trade similarly excluded last year. (See Annex III and Table 3).

2. Other Modifications

Redesignation of individual beneficiary developing countries for GSP benefits on specific items.--Individual countries previously excluded from receiving GSP duty-free treatment for particular products may be redesignated for GSP benefits if their 1984 shipments in individual items fell below last year's competitive need limits. Under this provision developing countries are being redesignated for GSP duty-free treatment on 42 products valued at $246 million, which represents 12 percent of the total amount of trade eligible for redesignation. The remaining 88 percent, or 117 items valued at $1,790 million, are being graduated and thus are not being redesignated. In last year's redesignation exercise, imports valued at $155 million were restored to GSP eligibility while $1,026 million of beneficiary country trade was denied reinstatement. (See Annex IV and Table 4).

De minimis exemptions from the 50 percent competitive need provision.--A de minimis provision in the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 allows the President to waive the 50 percent competitive need limit in cases where total U.S. imports of an item in 1984 did not exceed $7,583,785. As a result of the de minimis provision, imports of 285 products valued at $251 million from individual beneficiaries will be exempt from the 50 percent competitive need rule. The value of trade benefiting from this provision last year was $52 million. This year's increase over last year reflects a substantial increase in the de minimis level which was incorporated in last year's legislation renewing the GSP program. (See Annex V and Table 5).

The exclusion of exports of individual countries from GSP duty-free treatment for certain products because the competitive need ceilings were exceeded.--Under the statutory competitive need provisions, a country loses GSP duty-free treatment for a product if its shipments of the product in the preceding calendar year equaled or exceeded 50 percent of the value of total U.S. imports of the product or were more than a certain dollar value ($63,821,294 for imports in 1984). Competitive need exclusions total approximately $13.8 billion based on 1984 trade, as compared to the $10.7 billion affected by the statutory exclusions last year. Of the $13.8 billion excluded, $1.8 billion consists of trade in items where a beneficiary is losing eligibility for the first time. (See Annex VI and Table 6).
