PROCEDURES FOR FUTURE APPOINTMENTS OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTORS-GENERAL

Approved by the Council on 15 April 1987

The Deputy Directors-General are to be appointed by the Director-General for renewable terms of three years. The Director-General is to announce at a meeting of the Council that he will hold consultations on the appointment or reappointment of a Deputy Director-General. Such consultations will start not less than three months before the expiration of the term of office of the Deputy Director-General. After the termination of the consultations, the Director-General will inform the Council of his decision concerning the appointment.
