REPLIES TO QUESTIONNAIRE ON IMPORT LICENSING PROCEDURES

THAILAND

The following notification has been received from the delegation of Thailand, containing corrections to Thailand's reply to the Questionnaire, originally circulated as L/5576 of 5 December 1983.

-----

Corrections to be made to document L/5576

- 1) Para 1, line 5, delete "Import and Export Control Act B.E. 2482 (1939)";
- 2) Para 2, line 2, replace "B.E. 2485 (1942)" with "B.E. 2522 (1979)";
- 3) Para 6 (b), line 3, insert "or proportionate compensatory purchase of same locally produced product." after "performance";
- 4) Para 6 (b), line 6-7, replace "which is normally four to six months" with "and licences must be obtained prior to importation";
- 5) Para 6 (f), line 1, replace "a period of validity of 30-60 days" with "a period of validity of 90 days and this is extendable for further periods of 90 days or subject to stipulated conditions" ;
- 6) Replace para 14 with "The period of validity of a license is 90 days and could be extended on the basis of reasons submitted for consideration. Generally, there is no problem for extending licenses except in the case of some particular products."
- 7) Para 17, delete "For monosodium glutamate products, the importer must report each month the quantity imported, the amount of utilization and surplus."
