PAKISTAN - RENEGOTIATION OF SCHEDULE

Extension of Time-Limit

Decision of 23 January 1989¹

Considering that the CONTRACTING PARTIES, by Decision of 29 November 1977² suspended the application of the provisions of Article II of the General Agreement to the extent necessary to enable the Government of Pakistan to maintain in force the rates of duty provided in its revised Customs Tariff, subject to certain specified conditions;

Considering that among the conditions mentioned above was the obligation to conduct negotiations or consultations in conformity with paragraphs 1 to 3 of Article XXVIII and to terminate such negotiations or consultations before 31 December 1979;

Considering that the CONTRACTING PARTIES, by successive decisions, extended the time-limit for the completion of the negotiations or consultations to be conducted by the Government of Pakistan until 31 December 1988;³

Considering that the Government of Pakistan has notified that necessary negotiations and consultations were about to be terminated;

Noting that the Government of Pakistan has also advised that it implemented the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) in 1988 and that it will have to enter into another series of Article XXVIII negotiations in connection with the introduction of the Harmonized System;

Considering that the Government of Pakistan has indicated that a new schedule of concessions in the Harmonized System nomenclature, taking into account the negotiations and consultations already carried out, is being distributed and that the proposed schedule will be finalized after the required negotiations and consultations under Article XXVIII with interested contracting parties;

Considering that the Government of Pakistan has therefore requested an extension of the time-limit for the conclusion of the negotiations by one year;

¹The Decision was adopted by postal ballot. There were 58 votes in favour and one against.
