GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Notification by the United States

Addendum

In a communication dated 18 January 1990, the delegation of the United States has notified annual changes in the United States GSP scheme which entered into force on 1 July 1988, and a list of changes implemented since then.

On 5 January 1990 the United States designated Poland as a beneficiary for the purposes of the United States GSP scheme.

Part I: Changes Resulting from the 1988 U.S. GSP Annual Review:

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL CHANGES IN THE U.S. GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES (GSP)

Announced April 13, 1989
Effective July 1, 1989

1. Changes resulting from the 1988 GSP Product Review

The addition of new products to the GSP list -- As a result of the GSP product review, nine new items are being designated for GSP duty-free treatment, effective July 1, 1989. These items represent 10.8 million in newly-eligible trade. (see Annex I and Table 1.)

The removal of products from the GSP list -- As a result of the GSP product review, one product is being removed from GSP eligibility effective July 1, 1989 in response to a petition filed by U.S. industry. The value of currently GSP eligible trade that will lose GSP eligibility as a result of this decision was $11 million in 1988. (See Annex II and Table 2.)

The removal ("graduation") of a country from eligibility with respect to individual products -- one country (Mexico) will be graduated from GSP eligibility on a certain product in response to a petition filed by U.S. industry, effective July 1, 1989. Excluded trade is valued at $1.4 million. (See Annex III and Table 3.)

The waiver of competitive need limits for a country with respect to an individual product -- the competitive need limits will be waived for one product when imported from one country (Mexico). (See Annex VII and Table 7.)

2. Other modifications

Redesignation of individual beneficiary developing countries for GSP benefits in specific items -- individual countries previously excluded from receiving GSP duty-free treatment for particular products may be redesignated for GSP benefits if their 1988 shipments in individual items fell below last year's competitive need limits. Originally set at $25 million in the Trade Act of 1974, the dollar value competitive need limit established for imports in 1988 is $82,526,480 ($32,221,250 in the case where a country has been found sufficiently competitive in the product). Under this provision developing countries are being redesignated for GSP duty-free treatment on 2 products valued at $8.7 million, which represents 0.35 percent of the total amount of trade eligible for redesignation. The remaining items valued at $2.45 billion, are being graduated and thus are not being redesignated. In last year's redesignation exercise, imports valued at $114 million were restored to GSP eligibility while $1.5 billion of beneficiary country trade was denied redesignation. (See Annex IV and Table 4.)

De minimis exemptions from the percentage competitive need provision -- A de minimis provision in the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 allows the President to waive the percentage competitive need limit in cases where total U.S. imports of an item in 1988 did not exceed $9,691,811. As a result of the de minimis provision, imports of 87 products valued at $150.4 million from individual beneficiaries will be exempt from the percentage competitive need rule. The value of trade benefitting from this provision last year was $322 million. (See Annex V and Table 5.)

The exclusion of exports of individual countries from GSP duty-free treatment for certain products because the competitive need ceilings were exceeded -- Under the statutory competitive need provisions, a country loses GSP duty-free treatment for a product if its shipments of the product in the preceding calendar year equaled or exceeded 50 percent of the value of the total U.S. imports of the product (25 percent in the case where a country has been found sufficiently competitive in the product) or a certain dollar amount during the preceding calendar year ($82,526,480 or $32,221,250 in the case where a country has been found sufficiently competitive in the product). Competitive need exclusions total approximately $6.2 billion based on 1988 trade, as compared to $22.5 billion affected by the statutory exclusions last year. Of the $6.2 billion excluded, $216.3 million consists of trade in items where a beneficiary is losing eligibility for the first time. (See Annex VI and Table 6.)

Part II: Changes Implemented Since the 1988 U.S. GSP Annual Review

SUMMARY OF CHANGES IN THE U.S. GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES (GSP)

1. Products added to GSP: Fourteen tariff categories of watches were added to the list of eligible articles:

2401.20.30	Cigarette leaf....	Removed from GSP
2401.20.50	Other leaf, including cigar leaf....	Remains GSP eligible

Announced July 6, 1989
Effective July 13, 1989

3. Additions to the list of GSP beneficiaries

Hungary

Announced: November 1, 1989
Effective: November 3, 1989

4. Deletions to the list of GSP beneficiaries

Republic of the Marshall Islands	Effective 10/18/89
Federated States of Micronesia	Effective 10/18/89

These two beneficiaries were removed from GSP after the implementation of "Compacts of Free Association" between the United States and the Marshall Islands and the United States and Micronesia. These compacts provides duty-free treatment to products of each freely associated state; this treatment is more favorable than that available under GSP.

TO AMEND THE GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES
BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
A PROCLAMATION

1. Pursuant to section 502 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (the 1974 Act) (19 U.S.C. 2462), and having due regard for the eligibility criteria set forth therein, I have determined that it is appropriate to designate Poland as a beneficiary developing country for purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP).

2. Section 604 of the 1974 Act (19 U.S.C. 2483) authorizes the President to embody in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (the HTS) the substance of the provisions of that Act, and of other Acts affecting import treatment, and actions thereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, acting under the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes of the United States, including but not limited to sections 502 and 604 of the 1974 Act, do proclaim that:

(1) General note 3(c)(ii)(A) to the HTS, listing those countries whose products are eligible for benefits of the GSP, is modified by inserting in alphabetical order in the list of independent countries "Poland".

(2) Any provisions of previous proclamations and executive orders inconsistent with the provisions of this Proclamation are hereby superseded to the extent of such inconsistency.

(3) The amendments made by this Proclamation shall be effective with respect to articles both: (i) imported on or after January 1, 1976 and (ii) entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after the date of publication of this Proclamation in the Federal Register.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fourteenth.
