Corrigendum

The following corrections should be made in paragraphs 30 and 31 as indicated below:

30. The last sentence should read: ..."The guiding principles do not apply to hazardous wastes." A new sentence should be added: "Where exporting member countries have taken a control action to ban or severely restrict a chemical, such member countries should make relevant information available to importing countries."

31. The first sentence should read: "If such a chemical is exported, the importing country should be informed..."
