1960-61 TARIFF CONFERENCE

Tariff Negotiations Committee

LEGAL DRAFTING GROUP

Interim Report

1. The Legal Drafting Group was set up by the Tariff Negotiations Committee at its meeting on 26 September in order to draw up the instruments in which the results of the Tariff Conference should be embodied. The Group now submits to the Tariff Negotiations Committee an interim report.
2. The reason for an interim report at this stage is this. Agreement will have to be reached in the near future on the text of the legal instruments, drafts of which are attached. Since they differ in some respects from the model protocol it is considered that at least their general form should be agreed by the CONTRACTING PARTIES; given that the nineteenth session is now in progress it would be expedient for this to be done before 8 December when the session ends - or indeed earlier if the Tariff Conference should end before this. But the documents are complex and delegations will wish to give them careful consideration. The Legal Drafting Group considered, therefore, that it would be expedient to circulate the drafts now in order to give all delegations the maximum possible notice of the terms of the documents which they would shortly be called on to approve.
3. The legal instruments, drafts of which are attached, comprise a final act and a protocol.
 - (a) The protocol, with its various schedules, embodies the results of the Tariff Conference, i.e. of the negotiations under Article XXIV:6 and Article XXVIII, of any other compensatory negotiations, of the accession negotiations and of the Dillon round. The protocol basically follows the substance of previous protocols although there has been some attempt to provide for more logical arrangement of the provisions and in some cases for tighter drafting. Part One deals with the position and in particular with the obligations of acceding countries; the drafting of paragraph 3 has to await further progress by the Working Party on Accession. Part Two lists the various categories of schedules (paragraphs 4-6) and covers the special problem, which would arise if Switzerland did not accede to the General Agreement, of new schedules to the declaration of Swiss provisional accession (paragraph 7). Paragraph 8 provides that the results of Article XXVIII modifications embodied in the schedules to the present protocol cancel out any prior concessions giving more favourable treatment in previous protocols.

The purpose of paragraph 9 is to make it clear that in those cases where a new concession on a product replaces an old one, the obligations on the contracting party concerned in respect of Article II(1) of the General Agreement (i.e. subsidiary import charges) shall be deemed to have started with the old concession, not the new one i.e. if imports into a certain contracting party on a certain product are bound at 10 per cent in a schedule to this Protocol, instead of 15 per cent in the previous Protocol, this does not absolve the contracting party concerned from not having complied in respect of this product with the provisions of Article II(1) before the entry into force of the present Protocol. Paragraph 10 contains the usual provisions which allow in certain cases, the withholding or withdrawal of certain concessions. Part Three deals with the form and implications of the acceptance by the CONTRACTING PARTIES, acceding Governments, Switzerland, and the EEC of the Protocol and the date of its entry into force.

- (b) The primary purpose of the final act is to certify, as did the final act of the Torquay Conference that in the case of any provision in the schedules annexed to the Protocol for treatment less favourable than that in the existing schedules, the procedures of Article XXIV:6 or Article XXVIII or some other appropriate procedure under the General Agreement had been complied with.

4. Points which it is suggested that contracting parties should bear in mind in the preparation of the schedules to be annexed to the Protocol

- (a) On the assumption that the period of validity of the Declaration of 22 November 1958 for the Provisional Accession of the Swiss Confederation should be extended (a Decision on this by the CONTRACTING PARTIES is pending), paragraph 7 of the draft Protocol provides that the concessions negotiated at the present Conference by Switzerland and by participating countries with Switzerland shall be incorporated in schedules which will become Schedules to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958. Participating countries which are starting the final preparation of their schedules to be annexed to the Protocol should therefore bear in mind the fact that their concessions to Switzerland would under such circumstances be incorporated in separate schedules to the Protocol which would become Schedules to the Declaration of 22 November 1958.
- (b) Contracting parties which wish to avail themselves of the possibility provided for in the draft Protocol of the inclusion of the results of any Article XXVIII negotiations which have been concluded at the present conference or on earlier occasions should
- (i) ensure that they have submitted the "Final Report" on the lines set out in document TN.60/5;
 - (ii) prepare for the inclusion of these concessions in the Schedule which will be annexed to the Protocol.
- (c) It will be noted that paragraph 8 of the draft Protocol provides in general language that such higher rates of duty as may result from modifications under Article XXVIII will automatically supersede lower rates in earlier schedules. Consequently it would appear that the only instance in which it will be necessary to make specific reference to the fact that an item in the new schedule modifies a concession contained in an earlier schedule will be in the case of the withdrawal in whole or in part of concessions from the latter. Any particular drafting problems which arise might appropriately be discussed with the secretariat.

5. Questions have been raised during the discussions of the Working Party on

- (a) the extent and nature of the obligations which might be assumed by the member States of the EEC in respect of their tariffs in the transitional period before the Common External Tariff comes into force.
- (b) whether for the purpose of determining in future Article XXVIII negotiations "claims to have principal supplying interest all substantial interest" regard should be had to the EEC as a unit or to member States individually.

6. These questions are now the subject of informal discussion between delegations. If in the light of this it should subsequently be considered that provisions on these subjects should be included in the Protocol or decisions of substance be needed by the Tariff Negotiations Committee they will be made the subject of a separate report.

7. This interim report is therefore circulated for information. Should any delegation have any preliminary comments on the draft legal instruments attached it might wish to get in touch with the Chairman (Mr. G.R. Denman, United Kingdom Delegation, Room 320, GATT Conference Building, 63-65 rue de Lausanne. Extension 275).

ANNEXES

I. Draft Final Act Authenticating the Results of the 1960-61 Tariff Conference held under the Auspices of the CONTRACTING PARTIES to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade at Geneva from 1 September 1960 to 1961

The CONTRACTING PARTIES to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade on 29 May 1959 decided to arrange for a tariff conference to convene on 1 September 1960.

The negotiations at that conference, which opened on that date and was concluded on _____ 1961, included:

- (a) Negotiations directed towards the accession countries to the General Agreement pursuant to Article XXXIII;
- (b) Renegotiation of existing concessions pursuant to paragraph 6 of Article XXIV of the General Agreement resulting from the institution of the European Economic Community;
- (c) The negotiation of new concessions pursuant to Article XXVIII bis between contracting parties, and between contracting parties and the European Economic Community;
- (d) Renegotiations by contracting parties of existing concessions pursuant to Article XXVIII of the General Agreement;
- (e) New negotiations and renegotiations, between contracting parties and Switzerland in relation to the Declaration for the Provisional Accession of Switzerland to the General Agreement, of 22 November 1958; and
- (f) The negotiation of new concessions compensatory for action taken with respect to certain existing concessions.

As a result of these negotiations, and of other modifications of schedules to the General Agreement effected pursuant to procedures established by the CONTRACTING PARTIES, the following instruments have been prepared:

- (a) Decisions agreeing to the accession of Cambodia, Ireland, Israel, Portugal, Spain, and Tunisia to the General Agreement (Annex I); and
- (b) The Protocol Embodying the Results of the 1960-61 Tariff Conference (Annex II).

The texts of these instruments in the English and French languages are annexed hereto, and are hereby authenticated; and it is hereby certified that, in each case in which a Schedule in Annex B, D, or E to the Protocol in Annex II to this Final Act results for any product in treatment less favourable than was provided for such product in the schedules to the General Agreement or to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958 existing on September 1960, appropriate action has been undertaken pursuant to paragraph 6 of Article XXIV or Article XXVIII of the General Agreement, or under some other provision of that Agreement or procedure thereunder, to enable effect to be given to such change.

Done at Geneva this _____ day of _____ one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, in a single copy in the English and French languages, both texts being authentic.

 - (a) Parts I and III of the General Agreement, and
 - (b) Part II of the General Agreement to the fullest extent not inconsistent with its legislation existing on the date of this Protocol or, in the case of an acceding Government a declaration for the provisional accession of which is in force immediately prior to its accession, the date of that declaration; the obligations incorporated in paragraph 1 of Article I by reference to Article III and those incorporated in paragraph 2(b) of Article II by reference to Article VI shall be considered as falling within Part II for the purpose of this paragraph.
2. (a) The provisions of the General Agreement to be applied by an acceding Government shall, except as otherwise provided in this Protocol, be the provisions contained in the text annexed to the Final Act of the second session of the Preparatory Committee of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment, as rectified, amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified by the instruments at least partially in effect on the date of this Protocol listed in Annex A to this Protocol: Provided this does not mean that an acceding Government undertakes to apply a provision of any such instrument prior to the effectiveness of such provision pursuant to the terms of the instrument.
 - (b) In each case in which paragraph 6 of Article V, sub-paragraph 4(d) of Article VII, and sub-paragraph 3(c) of Article X of the General Agreement refer to the date of that Agreement, the applicable date in respect of an acceding Government shall be the date of this Protocol or, in the case of an acceding Government a declaration for the provisional accession of which is in force immediately prior to its accession, the date of such declaration.

3. Provisions relating to preferential arrangements of certain acceding Governments.

PART II - SCHEDULES

4. The schedule in Annex B relating to any contracting party shall, upon the entry into force of this Protocol with respect to such contracting party, become a schedule to the General Agreement relating to that contracting party.

5. The schedule in Annex C relating to any acceding Government shall, upon the entry into force of this Protocol with respect to such acceding Government, become a schedule to the General Agreement relating to that acceding Government.

6. The schedule in Annex D relating to the European Economic Community shall, upon the entry into force of this Protocol with respect to the Community, become a schedule to the General Agreement relating to the European Economic Community.

7. The schedule in Annex E relating to any contracting party, any acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland shall, upon the date on which both the Declaration on the provisional Accession of the Swiss Confederation to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, of 22 November 1958 (hereinafter referred to as the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958) and this Protocol shall have entered into force with respect to such contracting party, such acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland, as the case may be, become a schedule to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958 relating to such contracting party, acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland.

8. In each case in which a schedule in Annex B, D, or E to this Protocol provides, for any product imported into a contracting party, treatment less favourable than was provided for such product in a schedule applicable to such contracting party on 1 September 1960, such provision for less favourable treatment in the schedule annexed to this Protocol shall, when such schedule becomes a schedule to the General Agreement pursuant to paragraphs 4, 6 or 7, terminate the provision for such product in such prior schedule.

9. (a) In each case in which paragraph 1 of Article II of the General Agreement refers to the date of that Agreement:

(i) The applicable date in respect of each product which is the subject of a concession provided for in the schedule annexed to this Protocol of an acceding Government, or of a contracting party or of Switzerland, if such product was not the subject of a concession provided for in the same part or section, as the case may be, of a schedule to the General Agreement of such contracting party or Switzerland on 1 September 1960, shall be the date of this Protocol.

(ii) The applicable date in respect of each product which is the subject of a concession provided for in the schedule of the European Economic Community shall, when imported into the Kingdom of Belgium, the French Republic, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Republic of Italy, the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, or the Kingdom of the Netherlands, be:

(I) If the product was provided for in Part I of a schedule (or of a relevant section of a schedule) applicable to such contracting party on 1 September 1960: the date of the instrument by which such product was first provided for therein: Provided, that a concession on such product has been continuously in effect since the entry into force of the concession provided for in such instrument.

(II) If the product was not so provided for on 1 September 1960: the date of this Protocol.

- (b) For the purpose of the reference in paragraph 6(a) of Article II of the General Agreement to the date of that Agreement, the applicable date in respect of the schedules annexed to this Protocol shall be the date of this Protocol.

10. Any contracting party, any acceding Government, the European Economic Community, and Switzerland, after a schedule relating to it annexed to this Protocol has become a schedule to the General Agreement or to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958 pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 4, 5, 6, or 7, of this Protocol, shall be free at any time to withhold or to withdraw in whole or in part any concession in such schedule which it determines to have been initially negotiated with a contracting party, an acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland, the schedule relating to which annexed to this Protocol has not yet become a schedule to the General Agreement or to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958, as the case may be: Provided that:

- (a) This paragraph shall only apply to concessions negotiated pursuant to Article XXVIII bis of the General Agreement.
- (b) Written notice of any such withholding of a concession shall be given to the CONTRACTING PARTIES (or to the parties to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958, in the case of a concession in a schedule to that Declaration) within thirty days after the date of such withholding.
- (c) Written notice of intention to make any such withdrawal of a concession shall be given to the CONTRACTING PARTIES (or to the parties to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958) at least thirty days before the date of such intended withdrawal.
- (d) Consultations shall be held, upon request, with any contracting party, any acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland, the relevant schedule relating to which has become a schedule to the General Agreement or the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958, as the case may be, and which has a substantial interest in the product involved.

- (e) Any concession so withheld or withdrawn shall be applied on and after the day on which the schedule of the contracting party, the acceding Government, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland with which such concession was initially negotiated becomes a schedule to the General Agreement or to the Swiss Declaration of 22 November 1958, as the case may be, or, if it should be a later date, on the thirtieth day following the day on which this Protocol shall have been accepted by such contracting party, the European Economic Community, or Switzerland, as the case may be.
