Article XXXV

Note by the Secretariat

Corrigendum

In the light of communications received from delegations by the secretariat, the following amendments should be made in the list of contracting parties between which Article XXXV currently operates: the Article no longer applies between the Republic of Maldives and Japan; it does apply between Lesotho and Japan, and between Morocco and Israel and Morocco and South Africa. Article XXXV applied as between Botswana and Japan from the date of Botswana's succession to contracting party status, i.e. August 1987.

The list of contracting parties between which Article XXXV currently operates is as follows:
